EXPLANATIONS

FORM RAB9B (12/12)

Filing of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case	A bankruptcy case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code (title 11, United States Code) has been filed in this court by or against the debtor(s) listed on the front side, and an order for relief has been entered.
Legal Advice/Note	The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice. Consult a lawyer to determine your rights in this case. Important notice to individual debtor(s): All individual debtor(s) must provide picture identification and proof of social security number to the trustee at the meeting of creditors. Failure to do so may result in your case being dismissed.
Creditors Generally May Not Take Certain Actions	Prohibited collection actions are listed in Bankruptcy Code §362. Common examples of prohibited actions include contacting the debtor by telephone, mail or otherwise to demand repayment, taking actions to collect money or obtain property from the debtor; repossessing the debtor's property; starting or continuing lawsuits or foreclosures. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although the debtor can request the court to extend or impose a stay.
Meeting of Creditors	A meeting of creditors is scheduled for the date, time and location listed on the front side. The debtor's representative must be present at the meeting to be questioned under oath by the trustee and by creditors . Creditors are welcome to attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and concluded at a later date specified in a notice filed with the court.
Do Not File a Proof of Claim at This Time	There does not appear to be any property available to the trustee to pay creditors. You therefore should not file a proof of claim at this time . If it later appears that assets are available to pay creditors, you will be sent another notice telling you that you may file a proof of claim, and telling you the deadline for filing your proof of claim. If this notice is mailed to a creditor at a foreign address, the creditor may file a motion requesting the court to extend the deadline. Do not include this notice with any filing you make with the court.
Bankruptcy Clerk's Office	Any paper that you file in this bankruptcy case should be filed at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed on the front side. You may inspect all papers filed, including the list of the debtor's property and debts and the list of the property claimed as exempt, at the bankruptcy clerk's office.
Appointment of Interim Trustee	The person designated as Bankruptcy Trustee on the front side of this form has been selected as Interim Trustee of the estate of the captioned debtor(s) and the trustee's previously-filed blanket bond is approved. Unless another trustee is elected at the meeting of creditors, the trustee shall serve without further appointment or qualification. The trustee is deemed to have accepted the appointment, unless the trustee notifies the Court and the U.S. Trustee in writing of any rejection within seven days after receipt of notice of selection.
Dismissal	This case may be dismissed unless a written objection to dismissal is filed by the debtor, a creditor or party in interest within 21 days after a creditors' meeting, if the debtor(s) or debtor's counsel fail to attend the creditors' meeting or fail to timely file required documents [Local Rules 1007-1, 2003-1(a)]. A hearing on the objection to dismissal must be set at the time the objection is filed and notice of the hearing must be sent to the trustee, all creditors and parties of interest, or the case shall be dismissed.
Creditor with a Foreign Address	Consult a lawyer familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions regarding your rights in this case.
